PSYCHOLOGICAL STRATEGY BOARD

Washington

February 19, 1952

MEMORANDUM OF INFORMAL PSB MEETING, February 19, 1952.

Presents: Walter B. Smith
Roger M. Kyes
Allen W. Dulles
Harold E. Stassen

1. The Board indicated that work should proceed along present lines pending the outcome of the Jackson Committee.
2. The Board instructed me to make all possible information available to Mr. C. D. Jackson, Administrative Assistant to the President, but to make it clear that action requests will have to be referred to the Board.
3. It was agreed that I would send to the Board members advance copies of the paper on how PSB works which the Jackson Committee has requested from me, but would not clear it through the member agencies.
4. I informed the Board that there seemed no urgent need for a formal meeting before the end of March. General Smith said that he expected to be away toward the end of March.
5. Mr. Kyes presented a proposal for a special PSB project outlined in a letter from Secretary Wilson to the Board members dated February 19. It was agreed that Mr. Dulles, Mr. Kyes and I would designate one person each from our respective staffs to coordinate the preparation of a detailed proposal for the Board's consideration. Mr. Kyes added that the draft press release accompanying Secretary Wilson's letter was only for information, not for Board action.
6. Mr. Stassen stressed the importance of India as a Soviet target in the cold war.
